FOREIGN AFFAIR.

Naples, February 2. The King's Field Equipage is preparing with the greatest Expedition; which gives Occasion to a Report, that his Majesty intends to put himself again at the Head of his and the Spanish Army. An Edict was published here last Week, promising a general Pardon to all Deserters, both Horse and Foot, who, within the Term of Forty Days from the Date thereof, shall return to their respective Regiments, or surrender themselves to the Governors of the Fortresses of the Kingdom.

Florence, February 9. The Army under Count Gages had actually began their March towards Foggia, in their Way to Tuscany, and Orders had been given for 10,000 Rations of Bread to be ready for them upon the 5th at Perugia, when a Courier arrived from Naples, with Orders to stop the further March of the Troops; whereupon they all returned to their old Quarters at Viterbo, Orvieto, Terni, Narni, Spoleto, &c. The Austrian Army continues in its usual Situation, and begins to be reinforced every Day by Recruits from Lombardy and Germany. On the 1st of this Month 500 Men of the Pope's Troops, that were raised the last Summer, having been dismissed, and their Regiments taken from them, Cardinal Acquaviva, who had previous Notice of this Design, enlisted most of them into the Spanish Service. A Party of Austrian Hussars lately surprized a Body of 400 Spaniards in the Neighbourhood of Orvieto, and defeated them; 150 of the Wounded Count Gages ordered to be sent to the Hospital at Monte Rotondo. A Report prevails in this City, that an Insurrection has lately happen'd amongst the Inhabitants of Corsica against the Genoese Government. A Third Regiment of Militia is raising in Tuscany, which is to be completed by the latter End of next Month.

Frankfort, February 20. What we have been expecting for some Time past, viz. that the French Troops quarter'd on this Side of the Mayn, as far as the River Lahn, would not wait the Approach of the combined Army, now marching from the Lower Rhine, but retire back over the first-mentioned River, has now happened: For not only those that were quarter'd between this Place and Mentz repass'd the Mayn on the 18th, but also those were posted on and about the Lahn, after a forced March of Ten Hours, did the like Yesterday and this Day, leaving behind them the Magazines they had erected. Those who have been quarter'd at Aschaffenburg, and other Places up the Mayn above this City, marched this Day on the other Side of the River, in our Sight. They give out, that their Design is to take Possession of the advantageous Camp near Trebur; but as they will find no Forage, nor other Necessaries, in that Country, which they have already entirely exhausted, and in which they have not prepared any Magazines before-hand, this is thought to be only a Blind to cover the true Motive of their Retreat, which is attributed by every body to the Approach of the Confederate Army. This precipitate Flight of the French Forces occasions great Joy here, and in all the neighbouring Parts.

Bonn, February 22. By Letters from Mentz there is Advice, that the Elector has distributed Powder and Ball to the Burghers, and appointed the Posts at which they are to assemble in case of an Alarm; and that the French have laid a Bridge over the Rhine near Worms.

HOME PORTS.

Deal, February 22. Wind W. by S. Came down his Majesty's Ships Princess Mary, Success, and Greyhound; the Augusta, Townsend, for East India. Remain in the Downs the Duke Mon of War, and the Sarah and Margaret. Arrived the York Merchant, Hill, from Hull for Oporto. Sailed Yesterday after Post the Wolf Sloop to the Westward, and this Morning the Granado Bomb to the Northward, with the Lion, Hoy.

Deal, February 23. Wind N. N. W. Sailed last Night his Majesty's Ship Success to the Westward. Came down his Majesty's Sloop Baltimore. His Majesty's Ships Princess Mary and Greyhound, with the Outward-bound Ships, are preparing to sail. Arriv'd the Wolf Sloop from the Westward; and remain the Duke Mon of War, and the Sarah and Margaret Storeship.

LONDON.

They write from Hamburgh, that the Czarina is inclin'd to use her Interest with the Courts of Vienna and Dresden, to bring about a Reconciliation with that of Berlin, under her Mediation.

Some private Letters from Munich say, that the great Remittance from France was actually receiv'd at Frankfort by his Imperial Majesty's Agent, before that Prince's Death; and, consequently, has nothing to do with the Measures confuted since his Father's Death, by the present Elector.

The Jews in Bohemia have receiv'd a definitive Answer from the Court of Vienna, by which it plainly appears, that however that Court may alleviate the Severity of its Sentence, it will never be brought to reverse it, notwithstanding all the Applications made in Favour of that People.

It is said, that Field-Marshal Count Konigsberg will execute a Commission of Importance at the Court of Dresden, before he goes to the Hague, which is supposed to relate to the Corps of Saxon Troops that are to serve next Campaign in the Empire; where, it is thought, Prince Charles of Lorraine will command in Chief.

Last Friday died at Bath, after a short Indisposition, his Grace the Duke of Beaufort, Marquis and Earl of Worcester, &c. who is succeeded in his Honours by his Brother, Lord Noel Somerset.

His Majesty has been pleas'd to grant unto William Beauchamp Proctor, in the County of Northuk, Esq; the Dignity of a Baronet of Great Britain.

His Majesty has also appointed Richard Edwards, Esq; Commander of his Majesty's Ship Princess Mary, to be Governor and Commander in Chief in and over his Majesty's Island of Newfoundland in America, the Forts, and Garisons at Placentia, and all other Forts and Garisons erected, and to be erected, on that Island.

Last Thursday died, at her Seat near Ilford, Mrs. Langford, a Widow Gentlewoman of a plentiful Estate in the County of Essex.

To-morrow the Wages due to the Company of the Ludlow Castle Man of War, to the Time of her being reduced to a Hulk, will be paid at the Pay-Office in Broadstreet; also the Short Allowance Money due to the Winchester to the 31st of October, 1744.

Yesterday the Rev. Dr. Knight preached before his Majesty, and the Duke and Princesses, at the Chapel Royal at St. James's.

We hear, that Orders are issued that no Persons, of any Distinction whatever, be permitted to pay any Visit to M. Belleisle, or his Brother, during their Confinement at Windsor Castle, without Leave first obtain'd.

Yesterday in the Afternoon the Engine belonging to Chelsea Water Works broke, occasion'd by the Frost; by which Accident, the Houses serv'd with that Water cannot be supply'd till it is repair'd.

The most Delightful Fragrant TINCTURE, the Breath, Teeth and Gums.

AT once using makes the BREATH most charmingly fine, sweet, and pleasant, the perfectly white, clean and beautiful, and is the most perfect Cure for the SCURVY in the Gums in the World.
It infallibly preserves the Breath, Teeth and Gums in utmost Beauty and Perfection, if they are no Ways decayed, and if they are, immediately rectifies all their Defects the same Minute it is used it makes the most offensive Breath smell incomparably fine and charming, and in a short Time so effectually cures, that a disagreeable Breath will not return.
It infallibly makes the blackest and most foul Teeth perfectly white and delicately beautiful; infallibly preserves them from decaying, and those a little decay'd from becoming worse; absolutely cures the SCURVY in the Gums, and inveterate, causing the Flesh to grow up to the Teeth, when almost eaten quite away, and affords a safe and certain Teeth to Admiration. It is to be used but a very short Time, is exceeding pleasant, and leaves a very agreeable delectable Flavour in the Mouth.
In a Word, for most delightfully preserving, and curing an ill-scented Breath, for immediately making the blackest Teeth most excellently white, certainly surpassing when loose, effectually preserving them from rotting, and caying, and infallibly curing the SCURVY in the Gums, not its Equal in the Universe, as all the Quality and principal Gentry, who use it acknowledge.
It is to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toyshop, at the Bible and Crown against St. Clement's Church-yard in the Strand at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.
